

Build better project managers

Industry-specific, high performance project management coaching

Project Coach is the only place in Australia to find truly tailored, totally effective coaching for Project Managers in property, construction, government, utility and resources infrastructure.

You can choose from a full range of comprehensive coaching programs, which deliver industry specific, state-of-the-art mentoring expertise and training.

Our Project Managers are leaders in their field. Up to date with the latest technologies, dedicated to preparation and precision planning, masters at getting the right results from people around them.

Public workshops announced for 2011

Project Management Coaching in Water, Infrastructure and Roads Projects.

Position yourself ahead of your competitors, with comprehensive, cost effective project management coaching workshops - which guarantee to demonstrate positive outcomes and deliver value. Open to all.

Access expertise at reasonable cost. Your facilitator in these open workshops will be an expert in your field, so you'll receive leading project management coaching which focuses on directly relevant issues. The scalable structure of our programs means you can create your own cost-effective timetable in line with other commitments.

An enjoyable experience that delivers tangible results. One of our many guarantees is that you'll enjoy our coaching content, and you'll be able to see measurable benefits as soon as it starts. You'll learn invaluable knowledge that positively impacts professional and financial performance.

2011 PUBLIC WORKSHOPS

- Water & Sewer project management
- Hospital Construction project management
- Road Construction project management
- Railway Construction project management
- Social Housing project management

Landcom – Largest land developer in NSW...

"The coaching and facilitation has been a key element in the process being undertaken by Landcom to implement a continuous improvement program."

Ian Hayes, General Manager,
Landbank Branch.

Government departments...

Our comprehensive programs offer you industry leading techniques and outstanding value for money, plus specifically tailored coaching for government projects.

Project management firms...

Make sure your project managers lead the field in sewage, water, roads and other public infrastructure projects.

Consultants...

Compliment your creative juices with the country's best project management coaching, tailored to get results in your industry.

HR and general managers...

Need the best coaching for your project managers but not sure where to look? We're the only place in Australia with such superb value, industry specific coaching.

Aspiring project managers...

Take matters into your own hands in your quest to be the best. Become a master with people and precision in project management.

Department of Defence – Sydney Metro...

“A complex arrangement of Commonwealth and Defence Government department and practical task requirements were successfully combined which resulted in a much improved method for initiating projects.”

Ross Coyle, Department of Defence.

Road Traffic Authority (RTA) – NSW...

“Courses were very well received by all participants, with a number of Councils requesting further coaching. The presenters combined well and delivered an excellent mix of practical experience and theoretical background.”

Peter Dearden, Senior Project Manager

- phone. +61 2 80197085
- web. www.projectcoach.com.au
- email. davidpoole@projectcoach.com.au

Position yourself apart from your competitors.
Be precise, call Project Coach.

