Meet our floral mastermind

International Towers tenant partners have been treated to sublimely sustainable installations from Bronte-based art florist Samambaia since we first opened the doors in 2016. The current festive season installation showcases sails, shields, and mats handwoven by members of the BULA'BULA Arts Aboriginal Corporation, using traditional techniques which highlight how our First Nations peoples have worked with and nurtured natural systems for many thousands of years.

Samambaia was founded by the marvellous Maria Claudia, who was here onsite recently finalising her latest work. We were lucky enough to grab Maria for a few minutes to find out more about how she came to be the flower power behind the Towers.

16 Days Against Gender-based Violence

The 16 Days of Activism Campaign is a global campaign launched by the Centre for Women's Global Leadership (CWGL) in 1991. The campaign has been used worldwide to call for the elimination of gender-based violence.

The campaign is run annually from 25th November (International Day Against Violence Against Women) to 10th December (International Human Rights Day).

Talented local musicians coming to our lobbies

As part of our ongoing cultural partnership with Sydney Conservatorium of Music, we will once again fill our lobbies with music performed by talented local musicians.

Every morning and lunchtime from 1st to 21st December, soloists and groups will deliver a diverse soundtrack of musical styles for our enjoyment, including acoustic folk, classical voice, contemporary, and a string quartet.

Masterclass Wrap: the Spring Pickle Slaw that's Two Good

Thank you to everyone who came along to our latest cooking Masterclass on Wednesday with our foodie friends at Two Good Co.

We watched the experts prepare a beautifully fresh, nutty, creamy Spring Pickle Slaw - and then we all delighted in making it disappear.
